

One Dept.'s Ad. Representative of the Store.

Stylish Wraps of Plush—Skirts—Waists—Tailored Suits—Golf Capes.

Our Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Departments are all on Third Floor. And the gathering place of womankind, with heart and mind on beauty bent and purse inclined to economy, seems to be in the Suit Department. Most natural. Here are the all-enveloping beauties of the garment world—fashioning Wraps; and mannish tailored Suits that make one forget the need of a wrap. It's a decided pleasure even to don or doff the pretty things we're showing. You're more than welcome, but we give advance notice that you'll discover a difference of dollars on precisely the same articles that are selling as leaders in uptown stores.

To get closer to the goods that you are anxious to buy now, it is worth remarking that Plush Jackets are very stylish this season. We offer two special numbers to-morrow that it would be hard to match. One is a plush jacket 21 inches long, made from the quality of Sault's plush, lined with electric seal, collar and cuffs trimmed with same fur. $7.98

21-inch Plush Cape, made with the plush back, handsomely embroidered with jet and brand, collar and front trimmed with marten. $9.98

A 21-inch Plush Cape, very handsomely embroidered with jet and brand, large storm collar, collar and front trimmed with Thibet fur, lined throughout with finest quality of Mercerized satin, is $5.98

Sample $100 Skirts, made from one quality of heavy taffeta, silk, handsomely embroidered. $6.98

Assortment of heavy black taffeta silk Waists, with corded front, fancy plaid and stripes. $4.69

$100 and $200 Tailor-made Suits, made from heavy all-wool materials, jackets in an assortment of styles, skirts in the very latest cutting. $11.98

Ladies' and Misses' Golf Capes, from $1.98 to $9.98

DOCKET IS HEAVY

THERE ARE 2,478 CASES FOR OCTOBER TERM OF CIRCUIT COURT.

THE GRIND BEGINS TO-MORROW

FOUR DIVISIONS WILL PROCEED TO DISPENSE JUSTICE.

Judge Slover Will Preside in Division No. 2 for the First Time Since Last Spring—Outlook in Each of the Divisions.

The October term of the circuit court will open to-morrow morning with 2,478 cases on the dockets of the four divisions. All four of the judges will begin on court cases, of which thirty or forty have been set for trial to-morrow in each division.

Divorce suits will be taken up in their regular order as they are reached in the court dockets. Among the divorces set for hearing before Judge Gibson, in division 1, to-morrow are:

Frederick Strothers vs. Ora Strothers. Sarah Duchesneau vs. Charles Duchesneau.

Allen S. Jackson vs. Ruth Jackson. Edward Fitzgerald vs. Augustine Fitzgerald.

Margaret Riley vs. John Riley. Amelia F. Arend vs. Henry A. Arend.

Judge John W. Henry, of division 1, will hear two divorce cases to-morrow. They are:

Emilia E. Clarkson vs. James H. Clarkson. Annie Brown vs. Samuel Brown.

Many tax bill suits and many damage suits are on the dockets of the four divisions. In all there are 22 cases on the term docket in division 1, 62 in division 2, 62 in division 3 and 62 in division 4. The clerks of the various divisions have their work in the best of shape and everything is ready for the judicial grind. The clerks are: W. B. Winn, division 1; Samuel H. Hagland, division 2; W. A. Curry, division 3; and Joseph H. Kover, division 4.

LAWSUIT OVER CHILDREN.

Many Women Appear Before Judge Gibson in the Green Habes Corpus Proceedings.

Fourteen women, five children and as many more were present in Judge Gibson's chambers yesterday during the habes corpus proceedings.

It is difficult to tell just how much, said S. M. Ford, one of the assessors, "but the figures show that there will be a slight increase in the valuations. In other words, the increases exceed the reductions."

Court Briefs.

The cases of Oscar Dalow and C. L. Martin had been set for trial in the criminal court yesterday on a charge of rape. His case was set for November 27.

Emmett H. Wilson gave bond for $1000 yesterday for his appearance in the criminal court on a charge of rape. His bondsmen were E. F. Swinney, V. L. Santa and J. J. Chase.

MUCH WORK LAID OUT.

The public improvements committee is taking it for granted the winter is to be late in arriving and that public work can be on for some time yet. On October 14 contracts will be let for the following work:

Hand burned brick sidewalk, Twentieth street, from 100 to 200 block 14, Goodrich to Grand avenue.

IT BEGINS A NEW YEAR

GREENWOOD CLUB HAS AN ATTRACTIVE PROGRAMME.

Wide Range of Subjects Will Be Treated During the Coming Winter—First Meeting Next Friday Night.

James A. Reed will read a paper upon the "March of the Corporation" before the Greenwood Club at its first meeting of the season next Friday night. This club, which he made up of teachers, lawyers and business men interested in literary matters, meets every Friday night in the assembly hall of the public library. Anyone who desires to attend is eligible to membership. There are no fees or formalities, and the sessions always begin promptly at 8 and close at 10 o'clock.

Dr. Brummell Jones is president of the club; Miss Elma J. Webster, principal of the Hamilton school, vice president, and J. M. Cottingham, principal of the Benton school, treasurer. The executive committee is composed of Dr. Greenwood, E. D. Sharpe and Elma J. Webster. Dr. Brummell Jones, Miss Elizabeth Buchanan, principal of the Woodland school, Professor W. H. White, of the Central high school; W. H. Martin, principal of the Morse school, and Miss Alice A. Roberts of the Lathrop form the programme committee.

The programme of the Greenwood Club for the year is printed in a very neat yearbook. The cover, of thick brown paper, has for a centerpiece the head of Pallas Athena. Altimus, Jones's daughter, in one corner is a flag of purple, the color typifying Jupiter. The following is the club's programme for the next year:

DEFY COMPETITION.

A PRIZE FOR THE PROMPT.

The Readers Who Apply Quickly Can Secure a Valuable Reference Library.

The Journal is gratified to announce that, by an extremely fortunate arrangement, it has been able to secure for its readers, who apply promptly, a limited number of sets of that great reference work, the American Dictionary and Cyclopedia.

The publishers have arranged to distribute, at a merely nominal price, a certain number of introductory sets to advertise the work, and so that it may be carefully compared with all other dictionaries and encyclopedias now before the public.

As above stated, a few of these sets have been allotted to The Journal to be distributed on exceptionally easy terms, and the rule, "first come, first served," will be strictly applied.

The distribution is sure to make a strong appeal in every home where youthful education (an ever-present responsibility) receives proper consideration, for the American Dictionary and Cyclopedia is a veritable library of practical treatises on all subjects, including such recent historical and biographical topics as the Cuban revolution, Spanish-American war, discovery of liquefied air, Dr. Hansen's Polar expedition, Professor Roentgen's discovery of the X-ray, the Transvaal affair, the arbitration treaty, and so on. Its statements of information are thorough, but concise, thus affording room within its pages for thousands of subjects which are crowded out of the ordinary encyclopedia by lengthy articles.

To the professional and business man, the scientist, teacher, student, it is equally invaluable, since it represents the sum and substance of human knowledge, as collected and arranged by a large corps of the foremost scholars of this country and Europe, at the expense of over $1,000,000.

The American Dictionary and Cyclopedia is in sixteen superb volumes, of nearly 9,000 pages, and constitutes a complete working library, good for a lifetime.

It has been brought down to September 1 of the present year, and is, therefore, the very latest, as it is the largest and most, general reference library before the public.

The present opportunity to possess it should not be missed, as it can now be obtained at a fraction of the regular price.

Full particulars regarding this invaluable work may be learned from an advertisement on the eleventh page of this issue, or sample pages will be sent on application. The sets can also be seen at The Journal D. and C. Club department, Journal building, Ninth and Grand avenues, rooms 29 and 31.

TO PLAY IN THE ORIENT.

Twenty-third Regiment Band From Cuba to Enlist for Service in the Philippines.

The Twenty-third regimental band, colored, of Kansas City, Kan., will enlist in the United States military service for service in the Philippines. The band is composed of twenty-five members, a majority of whom were with the Twenty-third regiment of volunteers, which saw service in the Cuban war. Upon the discharge of the band after its return to this country, George W. Jackson, the leader of the band, reorganized it, and has since been playing in the metropolis.

A short time ago Jackson wrote to Recruiting Officer Lieutenant John Haines relating the re-organization of the band. Yesterday he received the following letter from Lieutenant Haines:

Sir—I received a telegram from the colonel of the Forty-ninth infantry United States volunteers, stating that he will have you chief musician if you can enlist a good proportion of your band.

Please present yourself at this office at once, also any of the members of your band who desire to enlist.

"FIRST LIEUTENANT OF THE FIFTH CAVALRY, Recruiting Officer."

One of the members of the above musical band, Jackson visited the members of the band in person, and he stated last night that all of the men are willing to enlist for service in the Philippines with the exception of two or three who are here on leave.

The band is composed of the following well known colored musicians of Kansas: Harry C. Johnson, John C. Fanning, E. Davis, Tilford Davis, Jasper Thornton, Robert Parks, Charles Davis, David Williams, William Augustine, Thomas S. M. McCarroll, David Moore, W. Hale, Wallace Berrell, M. Owens, Joseph Mack.
